

Preliminary Conceptual View from Killian Road of the proposed natural gas compressor station as part of the Northern Access 2016 Project.

National Fuel has retained a licensed architect to design the facilities housing the natural gas infrastructure to be consistent with the surrounding area, incorporating agricultural design, site contours and plantings well beyond standard design practices. The design process continues as this is a preliminary concept under continued revision.

